

University Statistics from IPEDS

University of Chicago had a total enrollment of 15,775 in Fall 2016 including full and part time undergraduate and graduate students. The university's Carnegie Classification is Doctoral Universities: Highest Research Activity and in FY 2016 the total of all operating expenses associated with activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes was $347,330,609.

Diversity

Minority Serving Institution

According to the current version of data, University of Chicago is not designated as a minority serving institution.

Women and Minorities Graduating in STEM Fields

	Description	Years of Data	%
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Associate	Percent of women and minorities STEM Associate graduates out of all STEM Associate graduates	2015-2016	0.0
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Bachelor	Percent of women and minorities STEM Bachelor Graduates of all STEM Bachelor graduates	2015-2016	59.8
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Master	Percent of women and minorities STEM Master Graduates of all STEM Master graduates	2015-2016	62.2
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Doctor	Percent of women and minorities STEM Doctor Graduates of all STEM Doctor graduates	2015-2016	63.0

Foreign Nationals Graduating in STEM Fields

	Description	Years of Data	%
Foreign National STEM Associates	Percentage of all Associate degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	0.0
Foreign National STEM Bachelors	Percentage of all Bachelors degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	9.7
Foreign National STEM Masters	Percentage of all Masters degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	39.0
Foreign National STEM Doctors	Percentage of all Doctorate degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	30.1