

University Statistics from IPEDS

University of Illinois at Chicago had a total enrollment of 29,120 in Fall 2016 including full and part time undergraduate and graduate students. The university's Carnegie Classification is Doctoral Universities: Highest Research Activity and in FY 2016 the total of all operating expenses associated with activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes was $282,285,414.

Diversity

Minority Serving Institution

The University of Illinois at Chicago is a minority serving institution: Asian American-Pacific Islander and Hispanic Serving Institution .

Women and Minorities Graduating in STEM Fields

	Description	Years of Data	%
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Associate	Percent of women and minorities STEM Associate graduates out of all STEM Associate graduates	2015-2016	0.0
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Bachelor	Percent of women and minorities STEM Bachelor Graduates of all STEM Bachelor graduates	2015-2016	67.2
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Master	Percent of women and minorities STEM Master Graduates of all STEM Master graduates	2015-2016	84.5
Percent of Women and Minority STEM Doctor	Percent of women and minorities STEM Doctor Graduates of all STEM Doctor graduates	2015-2016	78.9

Foreign Nationals Graduating in STEM Fields

	Description	Years of Data	%
Foreign National STEM Associates	Percentage of all Associate degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	0.0
Foreign National STEM Bachelors	Percentage of all Bachelors degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	2.4
Foreign National STEM Masters	Percentage of all Masters degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	71.1
Foreign National STEM Doctors	Percentage of all Doctorate degree STEM graduates that are foreign nationals	2015-2016	50.7